++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Drier overnight with clear spells. Sunday, sunshine, scattered showers. Breezy.

This Evening and Tonight:
Residual heavy rain and strong winds in the east soon easing through the evening to become largely dry with clear periods. Some rain perhaps fringing into Kent and East Sussex later for a time. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Sunday:
Early rain soon clearing the far southeast to leave a brighter, but rather breezy day. Most parts staying dry, although there will be scattered afternoon showers. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Sunshine and showers through Monday, heavy at times and perhaps thundery. Likely becoming wet and windy again on Tuesday, then an improving picture Wednesday as rain and strong winds ease.
